Condolences

Christian condolences go out to the family of Mona Asbed, 74, formerly of Ashland and a former Calvary parishioner, who passed away on Tuesday, February 2. She is survived by two sons, Jeffrey and Steven Asbed of St. Louis, Missouri and a daughter, Julie Asbed.

Christian condolences go out to Jeannie Broughton and Catherine Childers upon the passing of their mother and grandmother, Mildred Hoffman, 88, of Lexington, formerly of Ashland, on Sunday, January 31.

OBSERVING THE LENTEN SEASON

The sacrament of confession will be offered at Calvary Ashland at 8:30 a.m. before Sunday Eucharist during Lent.

Shrove Tuesday will be celebrated at Calvary with a pancake supper on February 16, from 5 - 7 p.m. in the church parish hall. This is all you can eat. $5.00 per person. $15.00 per family.

Ash Wednesday service will be held at 7:30 p.m. at Calvary.

There will be a midweek worship service and study at Calvary on Thursday at 11:30 a.m., followed by noon Eucharist and study.

During Holy Week, March 29 through April 2, a devotion and simple lunch will be served. Church location will be announced at a later date.

On Maundy Thursday, April 1, Calvary will offer a service at 7:30 p.m.

A Good Friday service will be offered at Calvary on April 2, at 7:00 p.m.

This Year's Lenten Devotional

"The Preaching of the Passion," a book by the Rev'd. Peter Gomes, minister of the Chapel at Harvard University, will be used as the Lenten Devotional this year. Through a passionate series of essays, Gomes offers a moving look at Jesus' final words from the Cross--examining not the physical horror of Christ's last hours, but instead His dialogue with His Father. Join us on Thursdays during Lent, beginning February 18th with a simple meal at 11:30am, follow by Eucharist and study. Books are available through the office at Calvary Church. For those unable to attend during the day, this study will also be offered in the evenings at Christ Church in Ironton at 6 pm., beginning Wednesday, February 24th.

Donations for Ashland Child Development Center

Ashland Child Development Center is in dire need of a working side-by-side refrigerator and freezer. Their used one is about to bite the dust. One hundred meals and snacks are prepared on site daily. We will be happy to give a tax credit and can pick up the refrigerator.

Also needed are VCR machines. You can't buy them anymore - the center has hundreds of educational tapes. Please call Helen, Diane or ACDC (329-1744) if you can help.

Choir Scholars

We are now accepting applications for Spring semester choir scholars. The program is open to ACTC students, and we will assist them with tuition expenses. An interview and audition is required. For an application and information sheet, contact Carol Greene (carol.greene@kctcs.edu, ACTC 326-2142) or Melissa in the office at 325-2328.

Ladies' Night Out and Book Club

We will meet on Thursday, February 25, at 5:30 p.m. at C.J. Maggies for Ladies' Night Out. Afterwards we will go to the church to meet for the Book Club at 7 p.m. Fr. Jeff Queen will be our special guest. We are now reading Crazy Love: Overwhelmed by a Relentless God by Francis Chan. God is calling you to a passionate love relationship with Himself. Because the answer to religious complacency isn't working harder at a list of do's and don'ts - it's falling in love with God. And once you encounter His love, as Francis describes it, you will never be the same. (This is a correction to the previous reading selection of Normal Is Just a Setting on the Dryer by Patsy Clairmont.)

Community Prayer Breakfast

The Community Prayer Breakfast will take place Tuesday, February 9, 2010, at 7:30 a.m. at First Baptist Church - Ashland. Rev. Harold Moore is pastor. The church is located at 1701 Winchester Avenue, Ashland, KY. An offering will be accepted for the Community Kitchen or local charity.

The 114th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Lexington will be held February 25 through the 27th at the Marriott Griffin Gate Resort in Lexington. This year the keynote speaker will be our presiding bishop the Most Reverend Katharine Jefferts Schori. Carol Greene, Martha-Lindsey Cooke, Don Maxwell and Craig Clere will be representing Calvary as the deputies from our parish. Fr. Jeff Queen will also be representing Calvary.

Super Bowl Party

The Men's Group will be having a Super Bowl party at Dr. Richard Ford's home for all men of the church. We will begin at 6:00 p.m. this evening and have all the food and refreshments for you. Please come. Directions are enclosed in the bulletin.

Bake Sale for Haiti Victims

The Calvary Youth are raising money for victims of the earthquake in Haiti by hosting a bake sale during fellowship time after church today. The money will go to Food for the Poor which is the same group for which $375 was collected on January 24. Any money collected this Sunday will be added to what's already been donated. There will be lots of goodies available, and we hope everyone will stay after church and contribute to this worthy cause.

Returning Altar Flower Vases

If all donors could please return the vases to the church after they are finished with the altar flowers, we would greatly appreciate it. We now have a private donor who is currently providing the vases at a cost of $65 per 50 vases.

The next vestry meeting will be on Sunday, February 21, at 8:00 a.m.

Calvary Episcopal Church,

Thank you for your recent donation to Shelter of Hope, Inc. Your thoughtfulness and generosity are greatly appreciated.
