Advent Sunday began November 30.
To help families use this four week session as a time of spiritual preparation for Christmas a special daily devotional booklet has been prepared for use at the family dinner table. It uses the Advent Wreath as the focus. Advent means "coming" and symbolizes Israel's long wait for the Messiah (Jesus) and our hopeful waiting for his Second Coming in glory. Pick up your booklet on the hall table.

Honor a Loved One

Dedicating a poinsettia or altar arrangement is a wonderful way to honor or remember a loved one while enhancing our beautiful building. Please fill out the form below (PLEASE PRINT) and return to the church office with your contribution. The deadline for notifying the office is Wednesday, December 11. Dedications and memorials received after that date can not be published in the special Christmas program. Suggested donations for poinsettias are $20 and altar arrangements are $35.
